EGYPTIAN SOLDIER SLAIN

Cairo Protests to U. N. on Raid Laid to Israeli Patrol

Special to The New York Times.

CAIRO, Feb. 2—An Egyptian soldier was killed and two were wounded yesterday when an Israeli patrol, accompanied by two armored cars, crossed the armistice demarcation line east of Gaza and opened fire, Egyptian authorities announced today.

Egypt has filed a complaint on the incident with the Egyptian-Israeli Mixed Armistice Commission and has asked for an emergency meeting to consider the matter, according to Lieut. Col. Salah Gohar, director of Palestine affairs for the Egyptian army.

Rabbi Irving Miller, chairman of the American Zionist Council, in a telegram sent to the Egyptian Ambassador in Washington yesterday, denounced the execution of two Jews in Egypt as spies for Israel and the long-term imprisonment of others.
