ISRAEL REPORTS AMBUSH
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Feb 27, 1955; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 3

ISRAEL REPORTS AMBUSH

Egyptian Infiltraters Said to Have Slain Cyclist

Special to The New York Times.

TEL AVIV, Israel, Feb. 26—An Israeli cyclist was ambushed by Arab infiltraters yesterday evening near Rehovoth, seventeen miles from the border, the army reported here tonight.

The attackers were said to have crossed back into Egyptian territory at eight o'clock this morning, twelve and a half hours after the cyclist was slain. On their way toward the border, the nfiltraters were reported to have clashed with an Israeli police patrol near Yibna, four miles south of the scene of the murder.

United Nations observers investigated the incidents today after Israel accused Egypt of violations of the Armistice agreements.

The cyclist was Heinrich Levy, 40. He was killed by a burst of Sten gun fire from an orange grove as he approached a railway level crossing between Rehovoth and Kubeiba.

The army headquarters here also announced that an infiltrater from the Gaza strip, armed with a British Sten gun, was killed yesterday evening by a patrol two miles from the armistice lines.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.