ISRAEL URGES EGYPT ADOPT PEACE POLICY
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Feb 28, 1955; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 3

ISRAEL URGES EGYPT ADOPT PEACE POLICY

Special to The New York Times.

JERUSALEM (Israeli Sector), Feb. 27—Israel urged Egypt today in an Arabic broadcast to concentrate on its internal problems while at the same time refraining from hostile acts toward Israel.

The broadcast was a comment by a Foreign Ministry spokesman on an Egyptian statement of Thursday. This was that implementation of the armistice agreements remained the official policy of Egypt.

The Israeli spokesman questioned this statement in the light of anti-Israel declarations by Maj. Salah Salem, Egyptian Minister of National Guidance. The Israeli speaker also denied an Egyptian charge that this nation had expansionist ambitions.

"Instead of seeking doubtful alliances," said the Israeli official, "let the leaders of Egypt make common cause with their people in the fight against their country's real enemies—poverty, disease and ignorance."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.