ATTACK ON ISRAELIS NEAR GAZA REPORTED

Special to The New York Times.

TEL AVIV, Israel, March 12—Egyptians blew up an ammunition carrier in which Israeli troops were patrolling the armistice lines this morning, an Israeli Army spokesman reported here tonight.

The spokesman said the vehicle was blown up by a mine near Kisufin, which is twelve miles south of the Gaza area where thirty-eight Egyptians and eight Israelis were killed in a battle on Feb. 28.

There were no casualties in today's incident, the Army reported. Israel has requested an emergency meeting of the Egypt-Israel Mixed Armistice Commission under the United Nations to investigate.
