Israel Complains to U. N.
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Mar 26, 1955; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 4

outbreak of hostilities in the Middle East, which culminated in the Feb. 28 clash near Gaza.

Israel Complains to U. N.

Special to The New York Times.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., March 25—Israel complained to the Security Council today that Egyptian raiders last night attacked the village of Patish.

The protest was made in a letter sent to Selim Sarper of Turkey, President of the Council for March. It charged that the attackers' "premeditated assault" was one more instance of Egypt's policy of ceaseless harassment of neighboring Israeli villages.

Israel presumably will follow up the letter by raising the matter in the Council's next round of debate on Egyptian-Israeli border troubles. The Council is to meet again early next week to resume debate on the new Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.