SHARETT SOUNDS WARNING ON GAZA
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Mar 27, 1955; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002)
pg. 28

SHARETT SOUNDS WARNING ON GAZA

Israeli Chief Summons U. S. and British Envoys—Cairo Disavows Patish Attack

Special to The New York Times.

JERUSALEM, March 26—Premier Moshe Sharett directed the attention of the United States and Britain today to the "seriousness" of the situation along the border of the Egyptian-held Gaza strip.

Mr. Sharett invited the United States and British Ambassadors to visit him in Jerusalem. He led off his comments by describing details of the attack Thursday night on a wedding dance party at Patish in the vicinity of the Gaza strip. A young woman teacher was killed in the attack and two other young women were seriously wounded.

The Premier also spoke about the proposal of Major Salah Salem, Egyptian Minister of Guidance, that his country might join Western defense arrangements if Israel ceded part of the Negev to Jordan.

Mr. Sharett expressed the view that the United States and British Governments had a degree of responsibility in connection with the Egyptian statement as it concerned the regional defense plans they were pushing.

An Arab language broadcast of the Israeli Government radio station inquired tonight of the Egyptian Government whether the Patish attack represented an answer to the United Nations Security Council speech of Ambassador Abba Eban two days ago. In that address Mr. Eban inquired if Egypt was prepared to respect the armistice agreement in all details.

The Israeli broadcast asked for an immediate reply. The broadcaster said that if none was forthcoming Israel would have to conclude that the attack on the settlement and the recent planting of a mine that damaged an Israeli army vehicle represented an aggressive Egyptian policy.

On the Jordan border yesterday two Israeli Arabs were kidnapped, according to an Israeli military spokesman.

Israel has lodged a complaint with the Israeli-Jordanian Mixed Armistice Commission.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.