2 NORDIC MINISTERS ASSAIL SUEZ ACTION
Special to The New York Times.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 1, 1956; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 14

2 NORDIC MINISTERS ASSAIL SUEZ ACTION

Special to The New York Times.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, Oct. 31—The Foreign Ministers of Norway and Sweden accused Britain and France today of violating the spirit if not the letter of the United Nations Charter by taking military action in the Suez area.

Halvard Lange told the Norwegian Storting (Parliament) that actual operations of British and French forces in Egypt began about 5:30 A. M. today. He said this constituted "action outside the framework of the United Nations Charter."

Later in the day Foreign Minister Osten Unden told Sweden's upper legislative body that he found it "startling" that two Western powers generally regarded as United Nations adherents had acted in a way as to usurp the function of the whole United Nations.

Mr. Unden condemned the "Israeli aggression against Egypt" as a piece of "fateful folly" and expressed "deep concern."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.