British Airlift Starts Monday
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 2, 1956; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 35

British Airlift Starts Monday

LONDON, Nov. 1 (Æ)—Despite the hostilities in Egypt, Britain's Olympic Games officials today went ahead with plans to send 188 athletes and thirty-one officials to Melbourne, Australia, in an airlift starting from London on Monday. Sandy Duncan, secretary of the British Olympic Association, said there were one or two slight alterations in the planned air routes.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.