GEORGE FEARS NATO HAS BEEN DESTROYED
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 2, 1956; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 22

GEORGE FEARS NATO HAS BEEN DESTROYED

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 1 (AP)—Senator Walter F. George fears the use of military force by Britain and France against Egypt is a "death blow" to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The Georgian Democrat, who is President Eisenhower's special representative to the Atlantic Allies, said in an interview with The Augusta Herald today:

"The Israelis started the present trouble because they were encouraged to do so by both England and France. It may be that Russia's preoccupation with revolt in her satellite nations may have convinced the anti-Communists it was a good time to act."

"France and Britain have virtually withdrawn from NATO by taking action against Egypt," Mr. George said. "NATO was the screen of protection for Western Europe against Communist Russia and the United States has sunk vast sums into it. The situation today presents one of the meanest pictures in world affairs we have had in some time."

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.