Text of U. S. Resolution

Special to The New York Times.

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Nov. 1—Following is the text of a resolution introduced by the United States today at a special session of the United Nations General Assembly on the crisis in Egypt:

The General Assembly

Noting the disregard on many occasions by parties to the Israel-Arab armistice agreements of 1948 of the terms of such agreements, and that the armed forces of Israel have penetrated deeply into Egyptian territory in violation of the general armistice agreement between Egypt and Israel;

Noting that armed forces of France and the United Kingdom are conducting military operations against Egyptian territory;

Noting that traffic through the Suez Canal is now interrupted to the serious prejudices of many nations;

Expressing its grave concern over these developments;

1. Urges as a matter of priority that all parties now involved in hostilities in the area agree to an immediate cease-fire and as part thereof halt the movement of military forces and arms into the area;

2. Urges the parties to the armistice agreements promptly to withdraw all forces behind the armistice lines, to desist from raids across the armistice lines into neighboring territory, and to observe scrupulously the provisions of the armistice agreements;

3. Recommends that all members refrain from introducing military goods in the area of hostilities and in general refrain from any acts which would delay or prevent the implementation of this resolution;

4. Urges that upon the cease-fire being effective steps be taken to reopen the Suez Canal and restore secure freedom of navigation;

5. Requests the Secretary-General to observe and promptly report on the compliance with this resolution, to the Security Council and to the General Assembly, for such further action as they may deem appropriate in accordance with the charter;

6. Decides to remain in emergency session pending compliance with this resolution.
