PRO-ISRAELI RALLY IS HELD ON 7TH AVE.
New York Times (1857-Current file); Nov 3, 1956; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 2

PRO-ISRAELI RALLY IS HELD ON 7TH AVE.

Two thousand persons attended an outdoor rally at noon yesterday at Seventh Avenue and Thirty-eighth Street at which speakers called for support of Israel in its conflict with Egypt.

The demonstration, held under the auspices of Brit Trumpedlor of America, a Zionist youth group, was marked by the collection of funds and the display of placards reading, "Gaza belongs to Israel, Suez to the world," and "Boycott Egyptian cotton."

Members of the group staged a demonstration several months ago in the offices of the Egyptian consulate in protest against Egyptian attacks against Israel.

Rabbi Louis I. Newman, spiritual leader of Congregation Rodeph Sholom, 7 West Eighty-third Street, opened the meeting with a prayer.

Mitchell S. Fisher, a lawyer; Yaakov Liberman, a member of the Herut political party in Israel, and Yitzchak Heimowitz, president of the organization, also addressed the meeting.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.