Egyptian Paper Says Mob Killed Downed Israeli Pilot

CAIRO, June 6 (Reuters)—An Egyptian mob axed an Israeli pilot to death after he threatened them with a pstol, the newspaper Al Ahram reported here today.

The newspaper said that the pilot had bailed out over Zagazig in lower Egypt and was surrounded by pheasants.

The newspaper published a photgraph of the pilot, which showed him with head and face wounds. The pilot was not named.

In the photograph, villagers held up the pilot's clothing.
