The Proceedings In Washington
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 7, 1967; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 11

The Proceedings In Washington

YESTERDAY
(June 6, 1967)

THE PRESIDENT

Had breakfast with Democratic Congressional leaders; lunched with Secretary of State Rusk, Defense Secretary McNamara, and special assistants Rostow and Christian; announced the appointment of Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. as his special consultant on physical fitness.

THE SENATE

Debated the Middle East situation; passed and sent to the House a joint resolution creating a 7-man national commission on product safety to protect consumers from dangerous household products.

Adjourned at 5:29 P.M.

The Labor and Public Welfare Committee cleared the Administration's railroad strike bill.

THE HOUSE

Discussed the apparent Israeli victories in the Middle East; moved towards passage of agriculture appropriations bill.

Adjourned at 6:40 P.M.

Judiciary Committee approved a bill to fine flag burners up to $1,000 and imprison them up to one year.

DEPARTMENTS & AGENCIES

State Department announced that United States would break diplomatic relations with Egypt as a "reciprocal" action following the official word that Cairo is withdrawing recognition of the American Government.

F.P.C. said that the power shortage that spread over parts of four states Monday started with a failure of a power line of the Philadelphia Electric Company.

SCHEDULED FOR TODAY
(June 7, 1967)

President Johnson has no appointments.

Senate meets at 10 A.M. House meets at noon.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.