Jordanian Mayor Calls Tie With Egypt Madness
New York Times (1857-Current file); Jun 10, 1967; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times (1851 - 2002) pg. 12

Jordanian Mayor Calls Tie With Egypt Madness

TEL AVIV, June 9 (AP)—The Arab mayor of Hebron, which was captured from Jordan on Wednesday, sipped Turkish coffee with Israeli newsmen today and said that he had considered it "madness" when King Hussein of Jordan flew to Cairo to seek a defense treaty with President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

The mayor, Sheik Mohammed Ali Jabari, sent greetings to Premier Levi Eshkol of Israel; Moshe Dayan, the Defense Minister, and Itzhak Rabin, the Chief of Staff. He commended Israeli soldiers for their disciplined behavior since taking his town, which is south of Jerusalem. He said that there had been no looting or other incidents.

Sheik Ali Jabari was one of several Jordanian mayors who offered to cooperate with Israeli authorities.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.